Date: Saturday 24th November
Time: 12 – 2pm
Venue: Education Room 3, Museum of Liverpool, Pier Head, Liverpool L3 1DG
Cost: FREE

Contact: Serena Cavanagh, Sahir House

Further info: The UK AIDS Memorial Quilt is an irreplaceable piece of social history. It tells the stories of many of those lost in the early days of the HIV AIDS epidemic in the 80's and 90's. In total there are 48 twelve foot by twelve foot panels, each comprising up to 8 smaller panels. Each individual panel commemorates someone who died of AIDS and has been lovingly made by their friends, lovers or family. Sahir House will be exhibiting a selection of panels from the collection, all linked to people from the Northwest.

The panels were last displayed in 1992 in Liverpool Cathedral, see film footage here.

Today's launch is an opportunity for those involved in making a panel to come together, reconnect and reflect.
