

THE JUDGES

- Tamar Hemmes

She is one of the curators of the current Don McCullin exhibition Tate Liverpool and previously worked on shows including Keith Haring, the Liverpool Biennial and Life in Motion: Egon Schiele/Francesca Woodman. Prior to moving to the UK, she worked at Mathaf: Arab Museum of Modern Art in Qatar, and on the Gwangju Biennial in South Korea.

<https://www.tate.org.uk/visit/tate-liverpool>

- Andrew Dineley

Has more than 3 decades of experience in designing logos, corporate identity material and many award winning assorted brands and campaigns with the health and charity sector locally, regionally and nationally. Andrew has been involved in designing specific HIV related artwork during his 30 years' experience so is an ideal choice of judge for this competition.

<https://softoctopus.co.uk/>

- Sophie Green

Sophie Green is a professional freelance artist and designer with over 20 years' experience working in the fields of Art and Design. Sophie has experience of working with groups from Sahir House and has a great insight into visual art in relation to campaign images. Sophie spends most of her days in her open studio in Merseyside on Paradise street, in the heart of the city.

<https://www.sophie-green.com/>

- Steve Earle

Steve Earle is the Support Services Manager at Sahir House and has worked with Sahir House for over 25 years. Steve's background was originally in visual merchandising and exhibition design.

<https://sahir.org.uk/what-we-do/support-services/>

SAHIR HOUSE